DISTINGUISHING FEATURES OF THE CLASS:

This position exists in the Mental Health Department and Public Health Department and involves responsibility for assisting in the administration of the Immunization Action Plan and other related programs. The work involves assisting clients in obtaining needed services and publicizing program activities. When this position exists in the Mental Health Department it will involve the responsibility for assessing and identifying client needs and working collaboratively with other County Departments, as well as other community-based agencies, to make linkages to community resources and health care services. The Outreach Care Worker may assist clinical staff with scheduling, facilitating, and monitoring services for high-risk populations. The work may take place in satellite settings of the Mental Health Department, such as the county correctional facility, and is performed under the general supervision of a higher-ranking employee." The work is performed under the general supervision of a higher ranking employee. The incumbent performs related work as required.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:

- (A) Graduation from a regionally accredited or New York State registered two-year college or university with an Associates Degree in Human Services, Public Health, Nursing, or a closely related field ; OR

- (B) Graduation from high school or possession of a high school equivalency diploma and two years of full-time paid experience, or it's part-time/volunteer equivalent, in human services work involving direct contact with clients in need of social, economic, physical, or emotional support services; OR
- (C) An equivalent combination or training and experience as defined by the limits of (A) and (B) above.

NOTE: Candidates with a Bachelor's or Master's Degree in the defined degree areas will meet the minimum qualifications.

SPECIAL REQUIREMENT: Possession of an appropriate New York State Driver's License is required at the time of appointment.

The written test will be designed to evaluate knowledge, skills and /or abilities in the following areas:

1. Applying information-These questions test for the ability to apply simple information. You will be given a Resource Directory that describes community agencies, their purposes and the type of client each serves. Questions describe clients with a variety of problems and situations. You must determine the appropriate referral for clients based on the services which each agency provides.

2. Interviewing-These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices employed in obtaining information from individuals through structured conversations. These questions require you to apply the principles, practices, and techniques of effective interviewing to hypothetical interviewing situations. Included are questions that present a problem arising from an interviewing situation, and you must choose the most appropriate course of action to take.

3. Preparing written material-These questions test for the ability to present information clearly and accurately, and to organize paragraphs logically and comprehensibly. For some questions, you will be given information in two or three sentences followed by four restatements of the information. You must then choose the best version. For other questions, you will be given paragraphs with their sentences out of order. You must then choose, from four suggestions, the best order for the sentences.

4. Working with people in human services situations-These questions test for a knowledge of general techniques used to deal with common client behaviors such as fear, hostility, shyness, resistance, defensiveness, withdrawal, anxiety and confusion.

The New York State Department of Civil Service has not prepared a test guide for this examination. However, candidates may find information in the publication "How to take a written test" helpful in preparing for this test. This publication is available on line at: www.cs.ny.gov/testing/localtestguides.cfm

ELIGIBLE LIST: A candidate's eligibility begins when his or her name is placed on the eligible list and continues for a minimum of one year.

NOTICE TO CANDIDATES: "UNLESS OTHERWISE NOTIFIED, CANDIDATES ARE PERMITTED TO USE QUIET, HAND-HELD, SOLAR OR BATTERY POWERED CALCULATORS." Devices with 'Typewriter Keyboards,' 'Spell Checkers,' 'Personal Digital Assistants,' 'Address Books,' 'Language Translators,' 'Dictionaries,' or any similar devices are prohibited.

SECTION 243-b Provides that any member of the armed forces of the United States who had duly filed an application to compete in a scheduled competitive examination, but was deprived of the opportunity to compete in a scheduled competitive examination due to active military duty be provided with a special military makeup examination.

SECTION 85a OF THE CIVIL SERVICE LAW: In conformance with section 85-a of the Civil Service Law, children of firefighters and police officers killed in the line of duty shall be entitled to receive an additional ten points in a competitive examination for original appointment in the same municipality in which his or her parent has served. If you are qualified to participate in this examination and are a child of a firefighter or police officer killed in the line of duty in this municipality, please inform this office of this matter when you submit your application for examination. A candidate claiming such credit has a minimum of two months from the application deadline to provide the necessary documentation to verify additional credit eligibility. However, no credit may be added after the eligible list has been established.

VETERAN CREDITS: For the purpose of claiming veteran credits on a Civil Service examination, an applicant must have served in the armed forces of the United States at any time during the following periods:

- World War II – December 7, 1941 to and including December 31, 1946
- Korean War – June 27, 1950 to and including January 31, 1955
- Vietnam Conflict – February 28, 1961 until May 7, 1975
- Lebanon – June 1, 1983 – December 1, 1987
- Grenada – October 23, 1983 – November 21, 1983
- Panama – December 20, 1989 – January 31, 1990
- Persian Gulf – August 2, 1990 to the end of such hostilities (not yet determined)

For hostilities in Lebanon, Grenada, and Panama, the individual must have received the Armed Forces, Navy, or Marine Corps expeditionary medal. Beginning January 1, 1998, the NYS Constitution allows members of the US Armed Forces who are on active duty (other than for training purposes) the right to request extra War Time Veterans Credits on civil service examinations prior to discharge.

If you are currently on active duty, you may request the addition of veteran's credits to your examinations score. You must request the extra credits on your examination application in the space provided. If you pass the examination, the credits will be added automatically. To use the extra credits at the time of appointment you must have received an honorable discharge, be a US citizen, and be a resident of New York State. The extra credits can only be used for one NY local Government permanent appointment.

SECTION 23.2: This entire examination is prepared and rated by the New York State Department of Civil Service in accordance with Section 23-2 of the Civil Service Law. The provisions of the New York State Civil Service Rules and Regulations which deal with the rating of examinations will apply.

APPLICATIONS: You may get application forms by writing or down loading from our website at www.saratogacountyny.gov, or phoning 518-885-2225 or by calling in person at the Saratoga County Personnel Department, 40 McMaster Street, Ballston Spa, NY 12020.

Time and place of the examination will be mailed to approved candidates one week before the date of the examination.
